

President Asks $26 Million to Combat Cancer

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON, (AP) — President Eisenhower asked Congress today to vote $26,525,000 for basic research to penetrate the "dark mystery" of cancer and to combat other leading killers.

The request was made in a five-point program in a special message calling for "a renewed and reinvigorated attack on our health problems."

Eisenhower told the lawmakers: "The nation in recent years has made notable advances in the unending struggle against disease and disability. Human suffering has been relieved, the span of man's years has been extended. But in the light of the human and economic toll still taken by diseases, the light of the great opportunities open before us, the nation still has to summon the resources it properly and usefully could summon to the cause of better health."

Eisenhower did not renew his request of last year for federal insurance of health insurance — a proposal which ran into opposition from the American Medical Assn. on grounds it might be an opening wedge to socialized medicine, and got nowhere in Congress.

Instead, Eisenhower said the administration is considering legislation to permit pooling of risks by private companies.

He said this might offer "broader benefits and expanded coverage on reasonable terms in fields of special needs."

"But," he added, "if practical and useful methods cannot be developed along these lines, then I will again urge the enactment of the proposal made last year."

Eisenhower called for action in five general areas, providing for:

1. A 28 per cent increase in federal funds for basic medical research to a total of $125,525,000.
2. A new program of grants—250 million dollars over the next five years—for construction of medical research and training facilities.

This money would go to state, local and private institutions with a provision that they must supply "at least equal amounts in matching funds."

3. Further steps to meet health personnel shortages. No specific amount was recommended here, but Eisenhower said the number of physicians being graduated from medical school is barely keeping pace with the increase in population, and that the number of dentists and nurses is diminishing relative to population.

4. Action to strengthen certain other basic health services throughout the nation.

His fifth point was that of meeting costs of medical care and embracing his plan possibly to submit later legislation for pooling of insurance risks.

Under this item, the President also recommended that Congress authorize a separate program through which the federal government would match funds expended by the states and localities for medical care for the indigent, the blind, the permanently and totally disabled, and dependent children.

Polio Victim Looks Forward to Operations

VENTURA, Calif., (AP) — Thirteen-year-old Frankie Eugene Drury is looking forward to four more surgical operations which, doctors tell him, will convert him from a hobbler to a runner.

Four years ago polio left Frankie's back hunched and one leg longer than the other. He could stand erect only with help.

Last week Dr. Bryce B. Blue of Ventura and Dr. W. Sterling Clark of Ojai performed the first of five operations on Frankie in Ventura County General Hospital.

It consisted of planting pieces of bone from a Los Angeles bone bank in Frankie's spine vertebrae. The transplanted bone is expected to fuse with his back bones and partially correct the spinal curvature. A second similar operation is expected to complete the correction.

A third operation will arrest the growth of the unaffected leg to give the leg time to catch up with it. Then will follow two more operations to correct his twisted feet.

Frankie, who lives alone with his mother, will have to spend most of the next year in the hospital. But he is happy about it.

"I just want to be like other boys," he said. "Maybe I'll even become a boxer, who knows!"

IBM Stock Takes a Sharp Dip

NEW YORK (AP) — The common stock of International Business Machines lost $13 a share today when it opened at $385 on the New York Stock Exchange. The loss later widened to $19 a share. During 1955-56, the stock hit a high of $430 and a low of $340.

Farmers Will Cast Ballots in Referendum

LITTLE ROCK, (UP) — Arkansas rice farmers will cast ballots in a referendum vote tomorrow. The farmers will vote approval or disapproval of the rice acreage allotment set for Arkansas by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office here said yesterday that about 7,500 farmers are eligible to vote in the referendum.

If the quota is approved, eligible farmers will receive government price supports at the full-rate of 75 per cent of parity. However, the ASC office said disapproval of the quota would mean a drop in prices to about 50 per cent of parity, since there will be no restrictions on marketing.

The national allotment, announced at the end of last month, was set at 1,639,084 acres, which is a drop from the 1,928,334 acres allotted during 1955.

Arkansas, which is one of 3 states on the USDA's quota list, has been given a 1956 rice allotment of 399,084 acres.

SS Benefits Available to Self-employed

During the month of February 1956, 12,435 persons in the four states area will receive benefit checks under the federal old-age and survivors insurance provisions of the Social Security Act, Maurice M. Chastain, District Manager of the Texarkana social security office, reported today.

These benefits are payable because these persons had protection under the social security law. This protection has now been extended to farm operators who may qualify for benefits as early as the middle of 1956, depending on their age and type of crop produced.

Thus, Hempstead county's self-employed farm operators (including sharecroppers) may find themselves qualifying for retirement benefits under this program when they reach 65. Should they die insured under the program, their survivors may also qualify for benefits. The year 1955 will be the first time that earnings from operating a farm can be reported for this protection, Chastain added.

Farmers who have net earnings of $400 or more from their 1955 farming operations should write the District Director of Internal Revenue for the proper tax return forms if they have not filed income tax returns in past years.

Requests for information regarding tax return forms and taxes due should be directed to the District Director of Internal Revenue, Little Rock, Arkansas. Questions concerning the benefits payable under social security should be directed to the social security office at Texarkana.

Joke-Making Has Become a Big American Industry — So Plans Are Made for Nat'l Laugh Week

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Joke-making has become a major American industry.

Therefore it naturally has to act like every other industry and issue an annual report.

The National Laugh Foundation, already preparing to celebrate National Laugh Week, which begins April 2, has just put out its report for 1955.

Here are (chuckle, chuckle) the 10 subjects it says the nation's gagsmiths made you chuckle over most last year:

The $64,000 question, Davy Crockett, the yellow rose of Texas, Love is a Many Splendored Thing, do it yourself, the overseas trips of Dulles, the Princess Margaret romance, automation, satellites.

The report cites the following as typical 1955 witticisms:

A Texan bought his wife a Cadillac for a present. She turned to him and said, "Dope, what question do you miss?"

John Foster Dulles, secretary of state, was seen recently in Washington, D. C., one of his visits to the U. S. A.

Automation is great. They've invented a thing which cleans on the dishes washes the floor and makes the bed. I've got the same thing — only I call it a wife.

Woodwind Quintet Feature of Concert Here

Among the ensemble groups to be presented next Tuesday night, January 31, at the Junior-Senior High Band Concert in the High School Auditorium is this woodwind quintet. In the classic traditional form, it consists of Mary Charlene Horton, flute; Mary Eppler, oboe; Wells Nutt, clarinet; Delmer Weliver, French horn; and Janet McKenzie, bassoon. Janet is a senior, Mary is a sophomore while Mary Charlene, Delmer and Wells are juniors.

Abbott Draws a Death Sentence

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Burton W. Abbott today faced the prospect of death in San Quentin's gas chamber because of two strands of hair, 18 bits of fiber and less than a handful of clay.

Largely on microscope and test tube analysis, a jury yesterday convicted the 27-year-old father of kidnapping and beating to death 14-year-old Stephanie Bryan. The seven men and five women had spent 51 hours and 56 minutes in reaching their decision. They deliberated six days before taking the first ballot.

The jurors specified the death sentence for Abbott on both counts — by specific decree for the kidnapping and by omitting any recommendation for mercy for the first-degree murder finding.

Old Document Dusted Off by the South

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The old doctrine called "interposition" is being dusted off in the South and rolled out as a weapon in the fight against school desegregation.

Four Southern governors called for the use of interposition by their legislatures at a conference Tuesday.

What is the meaning of "interposition?" In the eyes of the governments of some Southern states which are trying to hold off mixing of the races in public schools, this is the basic meaning.

The Supreme Court exceeded its constitutional authority and in effect legislated by judicial decree in its May 1954 decision outlawing segregation. Therefore, the advocates of interposition contend, the states have the right to "interpose" their sovereignty and seek to upset the decree by having the issue settled by an amendment to the U. S. Constitution. The theory is that if the constitutional issue ultimately goes to the states for ratification 13 states could block ratification because ratification requires 38 or three fourths of the states to approve.

entire royal family were ready to give their okay to the marriage between Princess Margaret and Group Capt. Peter Townsend — and Danny Kaye turned thumbs down. And then there the kids who were hit by a flying saucer — he wouldn't drink his milk.

Anybody laughing? Somehow, looking back, 1955 didn't seem quite that dreary did it?

"This progress—all the time this technological progress," she said, shuddering. "Sometimes progress goes backward, yes?"

"But now in America everybody has TV. Some even put TV in the boudoir. It is a mockery. Amour est fini."

It sounds like Mlle. Montel has never been escorted to a drive-in movie.

Forestry Department Reports 74 Fires in District During January Has Cost $9,379.70

During the first 16 days of January, 1956, forest protection unit number nine of the state forestry commission, which has headquarters in Stamps, had more forest fires and lost more acreage in timber and grasslands than was lost during the last six months of 1955.

The above mentioned unit is composed of all or part of the following counties: all of Lafayette, west half of Columbia, all of Nevada except the north west corner, west half of Ouachita, and south half of Hempstead counties.

Following is a table, by counties, of number of fires, total acreage lost, total damage, and total suppression cost of the fires in each county:

County	No. of Fires	Total Acreage Lost	Total Damage	Total Suppression Cost
Lafayette	23	779	$4,321.80	$580.05
Columbia	22	326	2,612.70	372.52
Nevada	17	437	1,747.40	512.52
Ouachita	8	53	315.00	389.48
Hempstead	4	48	352.80	91.63

Parts of the counties not included in Unit No. Nine's boundaries (Stamps Unit) are divided between Unit No. Eight (El Dorado), Unit No. Six (Delight), Unit No. Ten (Ashdown) and Unit No. Three (Fordyce). These units, as well as the majority of the state's fire control units, have been having a good deal more fires than normal as compared to the excellent record of the calendar year 1955.

Of the above number of fires the majority originated from the following causes: Incendiarism (or purposely setting a fire) brush or debris burning, smokers, and hunters (the latter three carelessness).

During the coming year, if you are one who believes that the woods should burn every year, please ask yourself the question: "How much damage does fire do to the young generation of seedlings, which is this country's future pulpwood, sawtimber, etc?"

The usual case is 100 per cent destruction of the young tree, and if this is continued on a given area of land it could become a barren waste, growing nothing, in a matter of a few years.

If you are going to do any debris or brush burning you are urged to follow these three rules:

1. Pick a day of low fire danger and either burn early or late.
2. Call your local forest tower or Ranger and tell him the location of your burning, in order to keep him from making an unnecessary trip.
3. Last, but not least, build a good line around your burning before you light your fire and stay with it until it is dead out.

If you are a hunter and smoker please be careful with matches, cigars, cigarettes, etc.

Let's all work together and make every day of 1956 a keep Hempstead county green day. Remember, you and only you can prevent forest fires.

Red Leaders Launch New Peace Push

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, (AP) — Russian bosses Nikolai Bulganin and Nikita S. Khrushchev appear to be launching a new peace offensive designed to revive the "spirit of Geneva" and regain a measure of Western good will.

The timing of their moves suggests to those that they want to offset in advance any criticism of their recent behavior which President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Eden may make after talks here next week.

Two developments may signal a renewed Soviet emphasis on peace:

Difference Over Middle East May Cloud Talks

By ROBERT HEWETT

JIDDA, Saudi Arabia (AP) — Britain's hardening policy in the Middle East—and American opposition to it—will cloud the Eisenhower-Eden talks in Washington.

Settlement of the Arab-Israeli strike is the main problem. British and American diplomats agree the Palestine dispute must be solved soon to stop a drift toward communism.

But there is a growing policy conflict over just how to win Arab friends and maintain Western influence in this area holding half the world's oil reserves.

Developments in recent months show Britain is adopting tougher tactics to retain her control over most of the Persian Gulf.

British-led troops placed a friendly sheikh and sultan in control of isolated Bahraini and Oman with desert raids reminiscent of the old days of imperial rule. The action so infuriated the Saudi Arabs that King Saud refused to accept the credential of a new British ambassador, Ronald Parks.

British policy backfired into bloody riots when Britain tried to pressure the kingdom of Jordan into the northern tier Baghdad pact.

Arkansas Boys to Be Tried Separately

HENDERSON, Ky. (AP) — Two Arkansas teenagers accused of killing a Henderson policeman will be tried separately on the murder charges against them.

Defense counsel for 18-year-old Joe Pearman yesterday won approval from Circuit Judge Faust Simpson that the youth and Benjamin C. Sittons, 19, receive separate trials. Both defendants are from Fayetteville, Ark.

Selection of a jury to try Sittons got under way yesterday after a motion by his attorneys for a further delay in the trial was dismissed by Judge Simpson. The lawyers asked for time to obtain depositions from character witnesses for Sittons.

A panel of 47 prospective jurors was exhausted with the seating of only nine men on the jury. Another 20 candidates for jury duty were subpoenaed to appear today.

Sittons is accused in the slaying of Patrolman Jack Ranier here Nov. 21. Ranier was shot after demanding to see the driver's license. It bore the name of Sittons.

Sittons was captured less than 12 hours later near Jonesboro, Ark., when police ran him down in a highway chase. Sheriff Lonnie Cooper said Sittons admitted to him that he fired the fatal shot.

However, Sittons now says that he fired a gun, but did not shoot Ranier.

Pearman was arrested at a Henderson bus station shortly after the shooting. Police Chief Fred Hallie says the boy admitted being on the car lot, but denied he shot the policeman.

Hope-Crossroads Paving Submitted

The State Highway Commission today authorized the expenditure of an estimated $60,000 on a farm to market road in Hempstead County if the County will notify the Department within 90 days that right-of-way has been obtained.

The project is the work of placing additional base and surfacing on Highway 73 from Highway 4 to Cross Roads, a distance of approximately 6.8 miles.

Herbert Eldridge, director of highways, said that acceptance of the offer by the County will not be required but that if necessary right-of-way free of obstructions is furnished the Department within 90 days the work will be done.

Stakes showing the right-of-way requirements will be placed by the Department's engineers during the next few weeks and it is possible that the project could be ready to go to contract by April, Mr. Eldridge said.

Terrorism in Tunisia Again Flores

TUNIS: Tunisia (AP) — Isolated rebel bands and grenade-throwing terrorists have begun to reappear in Tunisia after 18 months of faltering progress toward self-government.

Most of the outbreaks which began two weeks ago have been small. But they underline the political and economic difficulties of the French North African protectorate.

Nationalist violence all but ceased after Pierre Mendès-France, while France's premier, made his dramatic flight here in July 1954 to offer Tunisians a large measure of autonomy.

Habib Bourguiba, popular leader of the nationalist Neo-Destour party, returned from exile to a tumultuous welcome. Moderate nationalist Tahar Ben Amar was named premier, and the two men began negotiating with the French for working at home to improve Tunisia's lot.

This case, involving Radio Corp. of America, is currently on the trial court in New York City.

Storms Again Bring Floods to California

SAN FRANCISCO, (UP) — Storm punchy California today, another one on the chin today, more wind-whipped rains, floods across the state from one end to the other.

As much as six inches of rain was dumped on some sections causing flood threats in two areas.

Central and southern California got the worst of it this time. The weather man said light rain would continue this afternoon and tomorrow, but clearing is expected over most of the state late Friday.

Winds as high as 60 miles an hour at Blue Canyon in the Sierra and 37 MPH at El Centro on the north coast struck during the night. There was new snow on the mountains above the 3,000 level. Eureka reported hail.

Santa Margarita, at the headwaters of the Salinas river, drenched with six inches of rain. Santa Barbara got 4 1/2. Los Angeles airport 4, and Palmdale 3.49.

There apparently was no trace of serious flooding along the Feather and Russian rivers. It did so much damage during Christmas week deluge.

But residents of Tulare county battled to hold back the well-known Kaweah and St. John's rivers. State of emergency was declared yesterday when the stream approached the danger point.

Eugene Wise, assistant civil defense director at Visalia, said rivers had gone down "quite a bit" this morning and "everybody seems to be moving pretty well in our favor."

But the two streams, along the Tule River, had caused levee breaks in the counties. An obstruction in Mill creek, all caused water as deep as 10 feet in some places to flow parts of the city's eastern side.

The bureau in Sacramento cast a "disaster" plan for a near 10 feet in the delta. Rio Vista at high tide arrived after noon. This was only a two-tenths of a foot lower than highest stage during the December storms, when four of the agricultural delta islands were flooded.

U. S. Army engineers said delta levee tops ranged from 10 1/2 feet and "any time you have stage of nine or nine and a half feet it is dangerous."

The water pressure sent several shooting up before an automobile agency. Elsewhere, the pressure caused the sidewalks to buckle.

Nearly 500 persons were evacuated from various parts of Visalia and nearby Farmersville and Camp Linnell.

Two National Guard units were ordered into the area to help in the evacuations and to keep order.

Vallee's House Is Something Out of World
By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—You haven't seen anything until you've seen Rudy Vallee's house.

The place makes Librarian's house—piano-shaped pool and all—look puny by comparison. Come along for a tour. You climb up into the Hollywood Hills, get a little lost, then find Pyramid Place, on which Rudy lives. You pass through an auto gate—"caution—This gate closes 20 seconds after you enter"—and climb to the top of the peak, stopping your car on a turntable as per instructions on a sign.

The master of the house is there to greet you, picturesquely dressed in knee-length yellow socks, walking shorts, yellow sports shirt and checked coat. He is smoking a long cigar and instructs you to follow him for the "40-cent tour."

The house was built by Ann Harding and Harry Bannister in 1930, then passed into other hands before Vallee bought it. Rudy added many features himself, including the door chiming that plays his theme song "My Time Is Your Time."

He displays the living part of the house, which is ornate in the southern California tradition of the '20s and '30s. At the head of the stairs is a hidden passageway so small that Jackie Gleason couldn't get through it. This leads to a sun deck, which a hidden bed slides out at the press of a button.

He takes you into the large bedroom with seven-foot-square bed. Then you go down a long hallway, past his spacious office and out-doors. He leads you down a steep path, past a sign saying only thoughtless people discard cigarette butts. "Find and use ash trays." At one level is a large barbecue and swimming pool.

On the next level is a tennis court, championship size. Rudy leads you to a door under the court. Inside, you find yourself in a long hallway, about the length of two Pullman cars. On the walls are photographs, clippings and posters covering Vallee's long career.

Off this hall you find a large movie theater, a big bar complete with pool table and slot machines and another long lounge decorated with Christmas cards from celebrities over the years. Finally, on the level under the tennis court, is a vast catacomb-like place with files containing all of his old music arrangements, radio scripts and transcriptions, plus a liquor closet big enough to stock any commercial bar.

Later he spins you around on the turntable and you head back down the hill to reality.

New Daytime Show Worth Consideration
By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—Let's pass up the big TV shows for a moment and take a look at a relatively obscure program that made its debut on the CBS-TV network at the relatively obscure hour of 11:30 a. m., Eastern time, Sunday. Camera three, an excellent show which has been seen locally in New York for some time, chose to dramatize Fedor Dostoevsky's short story "The Dream of a Ridiculous Man" for its network debut. Personally it was a little rich for my blood, but I'll demand to the death the right of Camera Three to do such a program.

Use Your Own Judgment; Don't Depend on Friends

Around the World
STOWMARKET, England, (UP)—A 9-year-old school girl was a heroine today because she talked too much. By speaking out of turn Kathryn Fleit saved her 33 school mates from possible death or injuries yesterday.

Kathryn has been scolded time and again by her parents for talking too much and the teachers have disciplined her often for chattering when she should have been listening or studying.

During the arithmetic lesson yesterday, Kathryn leaned over and began whispering to a classmate. Schoolmaster Phillip Fisher caught her and as punishment kept the entire class inside when it came time for recess.

Three minutes after the recess bell rang, fragments of a jet airplane crashed into the school yard where the class would have been playing if Kathryn didn't like to talk.

TAIPEI, Formosa, (UP)—Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, Nationalist Chinese ambassador to the United States, will return to his Washington Post Saturday, it was learned today.

dramatizations of "Moby Dick," "The Red Badge of Courage," "Crime and Punishment." Unquestionably it will go on to do similar superior works.

It is not snobbery or an effort to be high-brow that makes one say Camera Three is good television. It's good because it's daring. It shuns the idea that a thing must be popular to be good and demands some intellectual effort from its viewers.

Camera Three is an expression of that small and goodly company of directors, producers, writers, technicians, actors and musicians who pump fresh blood into the channels of television.

Without them the industry's arteries would soon harden.

DOROTHY DIX

Use Your Own Judgment; Don't Depend on Friends

Dear Miss Dix: My marriage was a tragic and foolish mistake. My husband and I only knew each other four weeks when we married. When I became pregnant, he told me the only reason for his marriage was to spite another girl and he didn't intend to let family responsibilities tie him down. We separated. I obtained a divorce and he has only seen his son, who is 5 years old, twice. We have managed quite well, though. I adore my little boy and we have very happy times when we can be together. I work to support him and, as my job is well-paying, we don't have financial worries. The only trouble is that my time with my child is limited.

About a year ago I met a young man who is a good companion, shares my likes and dislikes, but claims he will never marry. That's all right with me, as I'm not anxious to remarry. I'm quite satisfied with things as they are. However, my girl friend says I'm being unfair to my child by not providing a father for him and that I should give up this unpromising friendship with the man and find one who is interested in marriage. This girl is older than I and unmarried.

CELESTE T. Answer: You would do your son far more harm by rushing into a marriage where he would be considered an interloper than you are by keeping him fatherless with one parent is certainly preferable to misery with two.

Keep Your Beau
I see no reason why you should deprive yourself of a pleasant friend to go hunting a husband. One will probably come along in the course of time, but your friend is wrong in advising that this should be the sole purpose of any dating you do. You had one bad experience from a too-hasty marriage; it's better to be careful than sorry.

Your judgment seems to have been sharpened by your marital failure. I think you can trust it, rather than listening to girl friends who may be harvesting sour grapes.

Dear Miss Dix: My teen-age daughter is very upset because her boy friend has been sent overseas. I'd like to distract her in some way, have suggested other boys, social activities and everything I could think of, but she refuses to be consoled. What can I do?

MRS. H. L.

Answer: A change in tactics doesn't work with all people, and many teenagers secretly enjoy a spell of broken-heartedness. Try a bit of sympathy; instead of diverting her attention, concentrate it on her far-off sweetheart.

Mention some activity at school for example and say it's too bad she's in no condition to enjoy fun but after all, you understand! Pretty soon her tears will dry, her ears will perk up at your latest news

Dear Miss Dix: How can one tell when one is in love? I think I am sure? I've never been in love before. All I know is that when I'm with her it's like walking on clouds. I'd like to explain it more clearly, but I can't.
MILTON

Answer: The explanation is sufficient; you're in love. Evidently books have been written about love but no one has come up with a better description than yours. They only enlarge upon it.

Israel, Egypt Accept UN Peace Plan

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel and Egypt have accepted a three-point U. N. peace plan for the disputed El Auja demilitarized zone. The U. N. Palestine truce supervision organization announced the agreement after Secretary Dag Hammarhjold conferred here and in Cairo with leaders of both nations. Hammarhjold has proposed the plan originally last Nov. 3, after Israeli and Egyptian forces clashed in the Negev Desert area along the Israeli-Egyptian border. Under the plan (1) Egypt will let the truce group put demarcation lines wherever the U. N. men think necessary, (2) Egypt will withdraw any "minor encroachments which might still remain in the one, and (3) Israel will remove all her military forces, obstacles and mines from the one. Hammarhjold's proposals were worked out after talks with the Western Big Three and Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns of Canada, the chief truce supervisor. Hammarhjold, who is making a world tour, told a news conference here yesterday he still believes a general Palestine settlement can be reached. The El Auja zone is about 95 square miles and stretches for about 20 miles. Both sides have made strong territorial claims within the area.

Bright Omen, Say Demos in Pennsylvania

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Democrats claimed a bright 1956 omen to Adlai Stevenson's 3-1 victory in the first congressional election of the year. Republicans, however, saw no such significance in it. State Sen. Elmer J. Holland, elected to succeed the late Rep. Vera Buchanan (D-Pa.), told reporters the special election result "points out very clearly that the Democratic party is on the march back to the presidency." And State Sen. Joseph M. Barr, Democratic state chairman, said in a statement at Harrisburg: "The great victory of Rep.-elect Holland, a staunch supporter of Adlai Stevenson, is a significant indication of Pennsylvania's pre-eminence in an important presidential election year."

Holland's Republican opponent, David J. Smith, McKeesport confectionery store operator, commented after the vote were counted that "Republican leaders refused to enter this contest."

"The vote is the result of their fear of a slimy" Smith added. Allegheny County GOP Chairman Edward Flaherty said the result was "a personal victory for Holland."

Complete unofficial returns from the 30th Pennsylvania District, a heavily industrial area including five Pittsburgh wards and adjoining sections of Allegheny County, showed:

Holland 36,019.
Smith 11,781.

Rape, Murder Charged to Youth of 19

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A 19-year-old ex-convict is to be charged with first degree murder and rape today in the Christmas week-end slaying of Joe King and an attack on two young sisters Monday night.

Prosecutor Frank Holt said he plans to file the charges—each of which carries a possible death penalty—against Emmett Earl Leggett of Jacksonville, who admitted the crimes after he was arrested late Monday night.

Holt, and Sheriff Tom Gulley said Leggett told them he killed King, the 14-year-old step-son of an Air Force sergeant, after the boy resisted his abnormal sex advances.

Gulley said that Leggett told one of the two sisters, aged 17 and 19, that he had killed King and would kill her if she didn't submit to him. The older girl was found naked and badly beaten on a highway near here by military policemen from the Little Rock Air Force Base. They arrested Leggett in his car with the younger girl.

Gulley said Leggett admitted strangling young King after 15 minutes of questioning. Leggett was sentenced in 1954 to two years in prison for assault with intent to kill in Conway County, but was paroled eight months later on condition that he stay out of Conway County and that he not drive a car. His parole expired Dec. 3.

Mrs. James T. King, mother of the young murder victim, said that she and her husband were "very relieved that the slayer was caught before he could kill anyone else."

Mrs. King had told officers that only a "powerful man could have strangled her son, who weighed only 120 pounds. Leggett, a truck driver for a construction firm, is more than six feet tall and weighs 100.

Officers said that T. Sgt. King showed some bitterness when he talked with officers yesterday. He had been questioned at length after young King's body was found and submitted to a lie detector before he was released.

"My husband has been very hurt through all this... and we are both very much relieved now. We are thankful that he didn't kill the girls."

Pulaski county officers quoted Leggett as saying that he "didn't know why" he had killed young King, and he gave slightly conflicting versions of the events leading up to the attack.

Police said he told this story: Leggett offered the boy a ride from downtown Jacksonville, to his home on the night of Dec. 23. After the boy resisted his advances, he hit young King several times, knocking him unconscious, then "got scared" and started choking him.

"He left the body a short distance from the highway, and after a trip to Little Rock that same night, returned and placed young King's jacket and billfold in the same vicinity. He led officers to the missing billfold yesterday."

Holt and Gulley gave this account of the attack on the girls: "Leggett waved the girls' car down near Jacksonville and told them he was stuck on a deserted side road about 200 feet from the highway. Leggett lured the younger sister to the rear of his car, and told her to get in the truck 'to put more weight on the rear wheels.'"

He then locked her in the trunk, raped and beat the other sister and carried her to the edge of the highway. He returned to the car and raped the younger girl twice before Air Police, who had found the older girl arrived.

The assault with intent to kill charge on which Leggett was convicted resulted from an attack on a Morrilton housewife.

In the trial, Leggett pleaded insanity. Records show he was found to be "without psychosis" by State Hospital psychiatrists in 1952 and again in 1953. The records also indicate that he has been in other mental hospitals.

Prosecutor Edward Gordon objected to the parole for Leggett but he stated that if he were paroled, he should not be allowed to return to Conway County and should be placed under medical care.

Health Program
Today health and family life is accepted throughout our country as an integral part of education, and as an instrument for the enrichment of lives and everyday living.
The physical health of a child is basic. It is not however, an end in itself but contributory to the development of a healthy personality and hence to the individual's happiness and his usefulness to Society. Since strong family units are vital to our way of life, this agent importance.

For a better way of interpreting to the public the health and educational needs of young children in the community and of suggesting ways to reach these needs, the

Butler, Whitley Credited With Porker Success

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas' amazing climb from the depths of collegiate basketball into the Southwest Conference lead is too closely tied to the sudden development of Pete Butler into a firey competitor and accurate marksman to be coincidental.

Statistics released by the Southwest Conference on team and individual performances show that it primarily was Butler, a 6-4 center from Jefferson City, Mo., who took up the slack when Razor-back ace Manuel Whitley fell off his game because of a back ailment. Whitley still leads the Arkansas pointmakers, both for the season and four conference games to date.

But Butler is ahead of the team, ball-hawking senior in free throws for all games and league encounters, and has an edge on Whitley as a rebounder in the conference tilts.

It was Whitley who lighted the spark, with a 30-point performance, to break the Razorback's unprecedented streak of seven consecutive losses to open the season. The first Arkansas victory came over Texas A&M. In their next outing, the Porkers dropped a 51-40 decision to the University of Missouri, and haven't lost since, winning four games in a row to lead the Southwest Conference with a 4-0 league mark.

After scoring 72 points in three games in the holiday tournament staged annually by the conference, Whitley hurt his back against Missouri. Since that time, his best effort has been 18 points.

And that's when Butler started pulling up. Two other starters, Jerald Barnett, the steady senior guard, and junior Terry Day, a fireball who lacks only polish, moved with him.

Here are the statistics to prove it: For the season, Whitley is the only Porker listed in the top 10 conference scorers. He ranks fifth with a 17.1 average for 13 games.
Butler ranks 23rd; Day 22nd; and Barnett 14th.

But in conference competition,
Whitley is sixth with an 18.0 average; Day is 10th with 15.3; Butler 11th with 14.8 and Barnett 13th with 14.3. The other starter, Buddy Smith, is 35th with a 6.5 average.

All this adds up to newly-found balance in the Arkansas attack.
Whitley has a .52 field goal percentage for 13 games to rate fifth in the league, but didn't make the top 10 in conference play, while Barnett is seventh with a .492 average.

Butler is the only Razorback in the first 10 free throw artists. He ranks 10th with a .744 average for the season, and 10th with a .740 average for the conference.

But the spot where Butler has provided the most help for the overworked Whitley is in rebounding. For the season, Whitley has averaged 9.5 rebounds per game to place ninth.

On the other hand, Butler ranks fifth in conference play with 10.8 average, while Whitley is 8th with 9.5.

Team statistics show Arkansas has a slightly better pointmaking average in conference games over its closest competitor, Southern Methodist. Arkansas has averaged 84.3 for four games; SMU 83.3 for three. On defense, the Mustangs have a small edge. They've given up an average of 63.3 points in three games, while Arkansas has allowed an average of 56.8 in four.

Campanella Highest Paid Dodge

By ED WILKS
BROOKLYN (AP)—Roy Campanel-la, who two years ago feared his baseball career was over, now is the highest priced player in Brooklyn Dodge history.

The jovial catcher, whose comeback in 1935 pithraps was the biggest single factor in bringing Brooklyn its first world championship, signed a contract yesterday calling for an estimated $42,500.
He got about $38,000 the last two years. No other Brook player ever had cracked the 40-grand mark.

In mid-season 1934, Campy was almost convinced that season would be his last. A broken bone in his left hand, suffered during spring practice, left him without control of two fingers. He finished the season with a pitiful 207 batting average, 19 home runs and 57 runs batted in.

Back in form last season, he batted .318, hit 32 home runs, drove in 107 runs and won the National League's Most Valuable award for the third time.
